Overview

Allison is a member of the firm's litigation group, defending both individuals and businesses in a variety of civil matters in state and federal courts including actions involving personal injury, wrongful death, product liability, toxic torts, and premises liability. She is involved in complex multi-party litigation matters for clients in numerous jurisdictions throughout New England.

Allison began her career at AP&S in 2025, after graduating with her Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School in 2025. She took full advantage of the experiential education offered at the law school by participating in the Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurship Clinic, and the Journal of High Technology law where she served as Chief Note Editor 2024-2025. She graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from North Carolina State University in 2022.
