Overview

Patrick is a member of the firm's Business & Corporate Law Group. His practice involves representing clients in corporate and business law matters, land use and zoning matters, mergers and acquisitions, commercial real estate transactions, commercial finance matters, and loan transactions. His background in both business and litigation allows him to navigate clients through a range of business and corporate matters.

Prior to joining Adler Pollock & Sheehan, Patrick served as a Chamber Law Clerk to the Honorable Maureen McKenna Goldberg in the Rhode Island Supreme Court. He also spent a year gaining valuable litigation and municipal law experience at a national law firm. While in law school at Villanova University, Patrick also received his MBA, and was a member of Villanova's Federal Income Tax Clinic.
